Mr. Duckett

General Smart's Visit

Carl:

I sent word to you that Paul Borel planned a small Luncheon upstairs at which Ed Proctor would be host this Friday for General Smart. In addition to those two, Borel mentioned that he and Sherman Kent, you and one other from DDS&T, would make up the Luncheon party. If Lloyd is available, perhaps you might wish to include him. As we discussed last week, you plan to conduct General Smart back up to your Office after lunch for a briefing until 1400 after which FMSAC will give the General a tour of the Center until about 1430. General Smart's clearances are SI, TKH, and [REDACTED]

NOTE: Paul Borel called Wed to say that Irwin Halpern plans to accompany Gen Smart. Earlier I had advised Borel (as you had told me) that the luncheon group should be small. Borel asks if you agree that the attendees remain at these six: Carl Duckett, Proctor, Kent, Borel, Gen Smart, and Irwin Halpern.
